

Drop-in Weekly Children's Programs will continue in February.

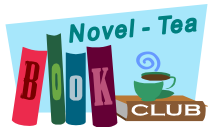

Start off with a New Year challenge!

JANUARY 1st - 30th - MYSTERY MONTH CHALLENGE – We will have books in disguise waiting for you to read – or – borrow online books through Hoopla, Libby or SimplyE apps found on calvertlibrary.org. Read 4 or more of these books and you may choose an envelope with a mystery prize inside. Teens and Children also included with special considerations.

WEDNESDAYS at 1:00pm – Crochet & Knitters' Club Want to learn or like to knit with someone? Stick with us. We'll get you hooked! Help is always available. Masks and social distancing always observed.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 14th at 6:00pm – Novel Tea Book Club – The Editor by Steven Rowley. Join us for a casual conversation. Then, stay for our monthly Friends of the Library meeting at 7pm. Copies of this month's book available at the library for check out. Contact us if you would like to attend by Zoom. Masks and social distancing always observed.

Everybody Learns Initiative - Closing the Digital Divide

Governor Lamont has granted the Janet Carlson Calvert Library monies to upgrade the internet and computers to provide the fastest connection for everyone as part of his Everybody Learns Initiative. To comply with this initiative, the library has purchased new computers and arranged individual workspaces for students and anyone in need. Bring your own or use ours to get the work done. Have need of a tablet or laptop? The Library can loan one for home. Stop in and see the changes we were able to achieve.

The Library follows all CDC and State guidelines to keep you and the Staff safe. We thank Governor Lamont for supporting libraries and helping us through this difficult time.

THURSDAY, January 21st at 6:00pm – All Things Culinary Cookbook Club –

The Manager of The Spice & Tea Exchange of Mystic, Sheree Baldwin, will present a zoom program showing the store and discussing different teas and uses for them.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 27 at 9:30am – Breakfast Book Club – Catch me if you can by Frank W. Abagnale, Jr., with Stan Redding. Enjoy reading non-fiction? Pick up a copy of this month's selection today at the library or check the Hoopla app for a copy.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 6th – Take Your Child to the Library Day! Wheel of Reading begins for the month of February. Stop in and see the changes to the library and play the game!

During inclement weather, the library follows Franklin Elementary School for all closings and delays.

Contact the library directly for program cancellation/postponement.
